Then, few words about the Workshop in Limassol, Cyprus

The workshop brought together experts and teachers from Cyprus and Spain in a dynamic and creative programme. Participants explored the value of cultural diversity through music and language, using the Milki-Way project as an engaging educational tool.

Teachers shared their experiences with the Milki-Way e-Library and audiobook activities, while also testing and refining materials from the Teacher Guide. Their feedback contributed to improving its clarity and usability.

Despite busy school schedules, participants were actively involved, and overall feedback was highly positive, highlighting the quality, relevance, and interactive nature of the workshop.

Next... a big event: the MilkiWay Conference in Madrid!
